Home Host Application Form

2010 Youth Leadership Program for Algeria

The Northern Nevada International Center seeks volunteers from the community to provide housing for 25 visiting Algerian high school students from July 5-July 21, 2010 plus two participants from Las Vegas. These students will be participants in a leadership summer camp with eight local students in order to better promote cultural understanding, youth development, civic understanding, and respect for diversity. This Youth Leadership Program is conducted under the auspices of the US State Department's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and is a result of a partnership between the Northern Nevada International Center, University of Nevada Reno, and our Algerian partner Muslim Scouts. For more information, please visit the Northern Nevada International Center online at www.nnic.org.
